Chapter 1

One morning I woke up and i was devastated. 😭 My mom was after telling me that we are moving house, TOMORROW. 😞 How will I tell all my friends in time? 😞 How will I pack up in time? 😞 The least she could have done is tell me earlier, she said she wanted it to be a "surprise". 😞 I was SO annoyed. I called my friend Amanda, actually she was my BEST friend, and I had to explain to her how I will probably never see her again as we are moving 2 hours away, tomorrow. The worst part is I couldn't even tell her in person, I had to tell her goodbye on the phone and it was all moms fault. 😞😞😞

Now it was time to start packing. 🧳 I picked up all the stuff I wanted and the stuff i didn't want went into the bin. Just then I heard a knock on the door, it was my mom, though I was really hoping it would be Amanda. 😞 I know it wasn't, because my mom would have never let her inside, she would've said "sorry Roma is packing up, you can come back when she is finished." 😞 But I still hoped it was her. 😞 Mom said dinner was ready but i was so sad that I didn't feel like eating so I just said "I'm not hungry right now, I'll eat it later." Even though I was starving. She just said "ok" and went back downstairs to eat her dinner. When I finished packing up I spent the rest of the night calling the rest of my friends, they seemed sad but not as much as Amanda. 😞 I fell asleep at around 10 and spent the night thinking about the next day 😞

The next morning I woke up happy until I realised it was the day we were moving. 🏠 Mom had already put the bags in the car and had gotten ready. Just then she came in the door and told me to hurry on! I told her "I just woke up, give me a minute!" Then she left and I got ready. I took my phone and sat in the car and was on it for the whole ride. When I got out, I felt sick no wonder since I was on my phone for 2 hours, in the CAR. 🚗 The house looked so ugly, well compared to our last one. Our last house was so cool it was pretty small but it was really modern. The up-side on this house is that it's really big, perhaps to big.

When I went inside it was soo creepy. 😬 Like when I was walking it would make these creaking sounds and in every room it was dark. I was sure I would get lost.

😡 Mom said I could pick my bedroom, I was really excited. I ended up picking a medium sized bedroom with a big window which shows the view of our neighbours house. Then I got out my phone to call Amanda to show her our huge house, that's when I realised we had no signal. I walked around the house to find signal and then i got it, in the ATTIC. 😭 I'm sure there was little crawlies all over the place and I'm not big for spiders. 🕷️🕸️ I ran out because I realised it's not worth it to call Amanda if I had to be in a room with spiders. So I just threw myself onto my old bed and took a nap.

Chapter 3

When I woke up it was night. Mom was asleep. I heard banging and creaking downstairs and it was keeping me from going back to sleep. So I went to check it out. I know now I shouldn't have. I should've just left it alone. Because what I saw was something I have never seen before. Something extraordinary.

Something exciting. I saw ALIENS. 😲 Yep you heard me right, I saw 3 aliens who were rooting through my fridge. I didn't scream because I didn't want to wake my mom or cause any unwanted attention from the aliens. But on the inside I was frightened. You may think it's not that bad but imagine waking up to see aliens! 👁️ They told me they were lost and hungry. I couldn't speak. I was way too scared. They said "we are sorry human but our ufo has crashed and we were oh so hungry." "Please help us find it, we don't belong here, we need to get back to our home! All our friends will be worried oh please human please!" I agreed. I don't know why but I agreed! It was too late to go back. So we snuck out of the house and started searching for their ufo. They said they crashed near a diner. There's about 5 diners in this town and we were going to search them all.

Chapter 4

The first diner Pops, took us about an hour to get there but no ufo. I was disappointed, I wanted to get this over and done with so I could get back to my old creepy home. I never thought I would say that but I also never thought I would be searching for a ufo with 3 aliens. The light green one, Bob said we should keep searching so we did. The next diner we went to was called Bella, more like a restaurant name but I'm not complaining! The teal one, Robby said "there's no ufo here we should keep going." I was wondering how they weren't getting tired. Were they aliens or something, lol. 😂 Anyways I was really tired since we were walking for 1 and a half hours. Did I mention I HATE walking. And I was walking in my pyjamas so I was FREEZING. 🥶 Then it started raining but none of them seemed to care, but I did. I said we should stay in Bella for a while until it stops raining since I was wearing a short sleeved top with shorts. They disagreed. I didn't care, I walked into the diner and since they needed my help because I know all the diners, they followed me. I was secretly smirking because I knew that would happen. I could see the disappointment in all there faces because they wanted to keep going which I understand but there's no way I'm going in that rain.

After the rain had stopped we started walking again.

😞 We were walking to the next diner called Maria. No sign of the ufo there. But instead of stopping we kept going. I wanted to get this finished and have enough time to walk home as well. We already walked for 2 hours. People who like to walk might think that's not a lot but trust me my legs were KILLING me. It was another hour to the next diner and hopefully the ufo will be there. I knew I would be tired but I didn't think I would be THIS tired. I would have never went if I knew I'd be walking for this long. The next diner was just called "diner". Not that cool of a name if u ask me. It was the second last diner or the last if the ufo was here which it wasn't. "Diner" was open and I was so hungry but I had no money. Turns out the aliens did, because they stole some. I normally would be mad but right now I'm actually happy they stole some. I think 20€ would be enough to buy me a meal. So we went inside. They were selling fish and chips, sausages, pizza and chicken. I love pizza so obviously I ordered that. I got a large just in case the aliens wanted some. We all got some water to go with that. When we got our food we shared the pizza and drank our water. Since I'm a kid the waitress asked why I'm out so late and I just said that we live close. She believed it. Now we were going to continue our journey to the LAST DINER. I was so so happy. My legs felt like they were going to fall off. But there was no point in going back now, this whole journey would have been for nothing and I had promised the aliens I would help them. We were now walking to the last diner. I was so happy I didn't even bother look at the name of the diner. The ufo was there. I fell on my knees and cried of happiness. I know that's a bit dramatic but I was really happy. Now I would just say goodbye to the aliens and be on my way home. The hopped into their ufo and then I realised something, I was way to tired to walk home and I would never make it in time for the morning. I asked the aliens to drop me home in their ufo and they agreed! So I hopped in the ufo and they dropped me home. We said our goodbyes and I went to sleep for the rest of the night. In the morning, mom didn't suspect anything, my pyjamas were damp from the rain, so I changed pyjamas in the morning just in case. Mom didn't notice I changed them which was good. I ate my breakfast trying not to look suspicious, which was really hard as I saw aliens last night. To be honest I thought the aliens would like erase my memory or something, maybe they couldn't or maybe they forgot. I don't know. Anyways it was so hard keeping this secret to myself. I wanted to tell my mom but I knew all she would care about is how far I walked in the night.
